A few words about the Zabul seven protests

ago 1 week - 137 views

Thousands of protesters carrying the coffins of 7 civilians killed by Daesh in Zabul province on their shoulders marched from Kabul city's Pul-e-Sokhta all the way up to the gates of Arg (Presidential Palace).

These protesters who claimed to be grieving and sympathizing with the dead demanded that the unity government build an Army Corps in Bamiyan, turn Jaghori district of Ghazni into a separate province and designate a specific hill in Kabul city in memorial of 7 Hazaras killed in Zabul.

This protest which was extensively covered by the television channel 'Tolo' was labeled by the workers of this channel the largest protest to have ever been held in the history of Kabul.

The head of the unity government as usual orally agreed to some of the demands of the protesters and deemed other demands above and beyond the capacity of government powers.

The organizers of the protest, who all hail from a single ethnic group, in reality wanted to project their force to the officials of the Presidential Palace and consolidate their power in the corridors of the unity government. If this was not the case then thousands of people have been killed way more brutally than the 7 Hazaras in the attacks of the Americans and their stooge forces over the course of the 14 year war but no one ever convened such a large protest and neither has anyone yet demanded Army Corps or creation of separate provinces.

Afghanistan has daily witnessed the death, grieving and protests of Afghans from the first day of the hideous American invasion but unfortunately, the government propped up by the Americans and forced upon the Afghans has repeatedly failed to answer the demands of the Afghan victims and protesters.

An example of this impotency of the Kabul regime which enjoys the boundless backing of the Americans and 'coalition partners' and has also signed onto the 'Bilateral Security Agreement', failed to secure the release of these same 7 kidnapped countrymen from the hands of a small number of kidnappers over the past 9 months, a task which the Taliban managed to achieve in the course of 24 hours and with a very small force.

The incompetency of the Kabul regime has reached a point that it has come to consider the release of victims due to the military operation of Taliban in Zabul province as the achievement of its own security forces!? This despite the fact that the released victims themselves and the locals of the area testify that they were delivered by the military operation of Taliban from the hands of Daesh terrorists and later handed over to local influential elders.

If the government forces were really capable of rescuing these kidnapped victims than why did they leave them in the detention of Daeshi terrorists for the past 9 months?

All in all, the officials of the powerless government are only good at generating more problems for the country instead of solving any of the countless issues at hand. The head of the unity government who himself testifies to the failures and impotency of his own government, is so uselessly feeble that he cannot even forward his own resignation to his office due of his failure at preventing the thousands of security incidents taking place throughout the country.

Such an authoritarian regime and such a powerful commander in-chief!!! is the direct result of that same American support which forced the signing the security agreement under the shadow of the ongoing occupation and in complete disagreement with the demands of government officials and the entire nation.

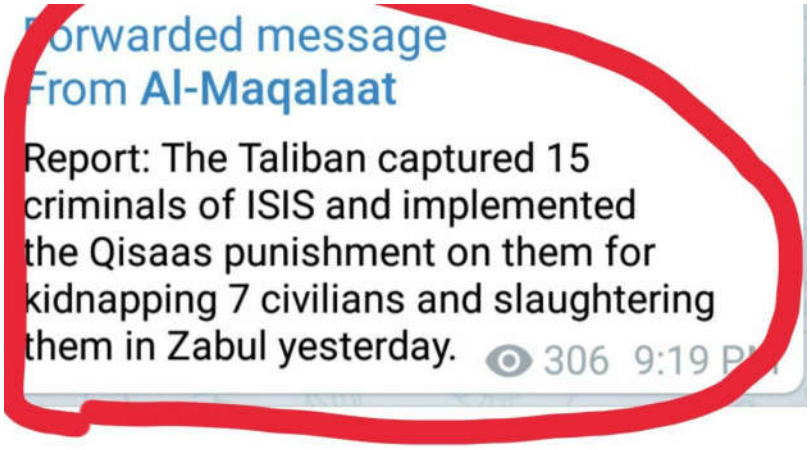
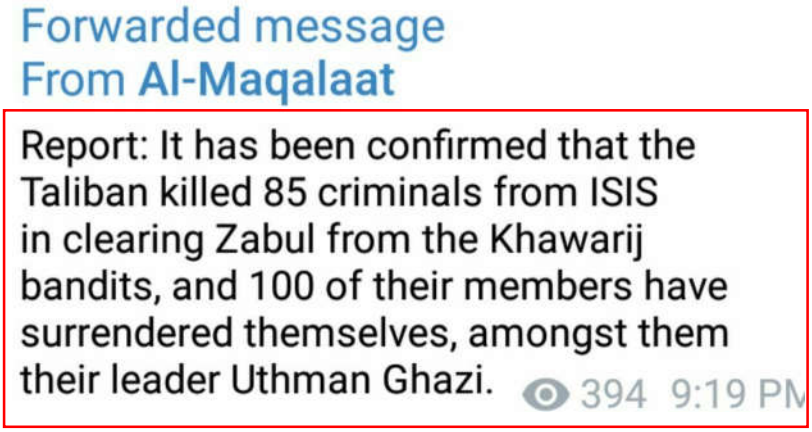
The above screenshot is from Taliban2.0's official website. This is about an incident when Islamic State Mujahideen seized some Rafidah and made demand to the Afghan government to release some Muslims from their prisons. After waiting for long time government didn't fulfill the demands. Some brothers out of zeal for the Muslim prisoners killed 7 Rafidah. 1000s of Rafidah protested in Zabul against that. When Taliban2.0 saw that they had a chance to impress Rafidah and to keep Sunnis and these Rafidah united they attacked Islamic State mujahideen killing many of them including their family members.

Then Taliban2.0 bragged about killing Muslims for the sake of Rafidah Mushrikeen. You can seen in the above screenshot how they brag that they did in 24 hours what Afghan government couldn't do in 9 months. Then they try to give impression they are better than Afghan government.

Below is screenshot from Taliban2.0 fan channel about the same:





2. Taliban2.0 believes Iran is an Islamic State

This screenshot is from Taliban2.0's official website.

It says, Inna Iran Dawlatul Islamiyah. Which translates to: Indeed, Iran is an Islamic State. Before we go further about it we know some Taliban2.0 fans like to defend Taliban2.0 saying that Taliban2.0 was referring to Iran as its official name. We say:
First of all, Iran's official name is "Islamic Republic of Iran" in English. In Arabic it is "Jumhuriyah Iran al-Islamiyah". In Persian it is "Jumhoori Islami Iran".

Dawlatul Islamiyah translates to Islamic State and not to Islamic Republic.

Second, That "Inna" in the sentence makes it clear that they see Iran as Islamic State. That sentence is equivalent to saying, "No doubt Iran is an Islamic State" or "Indeed Iran is an Islamic State.". So this clear that Taliban2.0 believe Iran is an Islamic State.

Now that we have countered the argument brought in defense of Taliban2.0 seeing Iran as Islamic State we can now talk about what this implies.

It implies that Taliban2.0 see Iran as Darul Islam(Land of Islam). They see Iranian laws as Islamic. They see their rulers and leaders as Muslims. We know Iran is land of kufr and shirk. Apart from those shrines where they commit shirk and kufr their religion is also full of shirk and kufr. Saying Iran is an Islamic State means you see kufr laws as Islamic laws and their murtadeen rulers as Muslims.
Taliban2.0 sees no difference between Islam and kufr, and Muslim and Kafir. That is against Quran and it is a lie upon Allah.

3. Taliban2.0 sees Rafidah of Afghanistan as Muslims Brothers

Invaders still committed to flaring up seditions!!

ago 3 months - 855 views

Our country faced many losses and sufferings during the dark period of American occupation in past fourteen year. The enemies of Islam and humanity have left no stone unturned to commit oppression and brutality. Besides outward damages, destructions, massacre and harassments, they encroached on the intellectual and cultural assets of the Afghan nation by targeting the centuries-old unity and harmony of the Afghan nation and created differences among them under the name of ethnical, geographical and lingual discrimination. They tried under different slogans to divide the Afghan society. While before this abominable American occupation, due to the blessing of Islamic system, Afghans lived with each other as brothers in an atmosphere of mutual respect in a balanced society based on ethical values.

Despite all ruses and wiles, when the invading enemy faced strong resistance of the people and failed to eliminate religious, intellectual and cultural unity of the Afghan society they then re-armed unscrupulous warlords under the name of Arbakis (militias), the same militia which their media once campaigned against by calling them irresponsible warlords. Now, as the Afghan nation has totally rejected the American project of Arbakism, our avowed enemy has started another dangerous game under the name of religious sects and seeks to create split among Sunnis and Shiites under the banner of Daesh (ISIS). They are fanning to the flames of internal seditions and fighting.

By the grace of Almighty Allah, Afghans are followers of Islam and according to the teachings of Islam we are brothers and Islam is a complete code of life for us. The efforts of the invading enemy will definitely face failure because Almighty Allah has sent us rules to eliminate seditions and mischief and also has commanded us to ensure its implementation on ground.

Allah, the Almighty has commanded us:

(وَاعْتَصِمُوا بِحَبْلِ اللَّهِ جَمِيعاً وَلا تَفَرَّقُوا) (آل عمران- ١٠٣)

"Hold fast all together to the bond of Allah and let nothing divide you" (Surah 3,

This screenshot is from official website of Taliban2.0

You can see how they see Rafidah Mushrikeen of Afghanistan as Muslim brothers.

They criticize Islamic State and label it as US agents who want to cause Shia-Sunni disunity.

We would like to remind you that about 30, 000 Rafidah from Afghanistan went to Syria to fight and kill Sunnis. But we haven't seen Taliban2.0 taking any action against these Rafidah. When Islamic State took action against these Rafidah Taliban2.0 accused them of being agents of US who want to divide Shias and Sunnis of Afghanistan.

Fake efforts by enemy intelligence regarding Kabul attack

in Statements | November 21, 2018 | 679 Views

An attack was carried out on a gathering of Mawlid an-Nabi inside Uranoos hotel in Kabul.

This attack resulted in more than 200 civilians mostly religious scholars and students of knowledge being martyred or wounded.

The Islamic Emirate reacted to the incident, condemning it in the strongest of terms and calling the perpetrators as criminals.

However, the Kabul administration intelligence circles have taken a screen shot and photoshopped the twitter page of the spokesman of Islamic Emirate, Zabihullah Mujahid, to give a sense that the Taliban initially claimed and then rejected the attack.

We reject this fabrication and deception and ask media outlets to avoid collaborating with enemy intelligence plots and refrain from publishing such efforts of notoriety.

The phrases and words used in the photoshopped image are not media phrases of the Islamic Emirate or words used by our spokesmen, for example it reads "apostate scholars of Kabul administration were attack". For one, the scholars martyred in the attack are not associated with the Kabul administration but are ordinary Afghan scholars who lived in Kabul, had Imamates, teaching jobs, taught and instructed people in Sharia related matters and had convened the gathering in a personal capacity. Secondly, the phrases and statements of the Islamic Emirate published throughout the eighteen years have never used the word 'apostate' to describe people associated with the Kabul administration and neither has anyone ruled on their apostatism.

It should be mentioned that the photoshop image was originally tweeted from an account that was created on this same day and only had two followers, as can be seen below.

This is screenshot from a statement of official spokesman of Taliban2.0. In this he is refuting a fake image claiming to be of a tweet from his twitter. The image was shared some news page claiming that Taliban2.0 had attacked a gathering of scholars accusing them of being Murtadeen.

In the same statement one can see that he says Taliban2.0 during last 18 years haven't used word "apostate" for anyone from Kabul government nor have they declared takfeer on anyone from this Kabul regime.

This means they don't make takfeer of their soldiers nor those rulers or politicians who make laws of their own and rule by them instead of shariah of Allah.

It will become clearer to you as we add more things below.

This below image was shared by official spokesman of Taliban2.0. In this Taliban2.0 official is leading Afghan politicians including Taghut Hamid Karzai(former president of Afghanistan) in salah at Moscow conference.

In the image below you can see Taliban2.0 officials Hamid Karzai, former president of Afghanistan and other politician Tawagheet in Moscow addressing media people together.

clinics not termed as war crimes by you?!

Are Afghans not classified as human beings in your view or is there a waiver in the human right charter concerning Afghans whom can be killed, detained and their homes destroyed by American forces witho being trialed? Where has humanity and human sympathy vanished that it cannot prevent the horrendou crimes by American forces?

Why has the Organization of Islamic Conference – founded for the defense of the rights of Muslims – adopted silence regarding the destruction of religious seminaries and mass killing of Afghans by Ameri forces in Afghanistan? Is Afghanistan not a member of this organization or are the Afghans killed by foreigners not part of the Islamic community? You must inform yourselves about this tragedy and help them raise their voices of oppression to the international community.

Appeal of the Islamic Emirate:

The Islamic Emirate appeals to the Islamic Conference, United Nations, Human Right Watch, Internatior Criminal Court and all independent media outlets to earnestly prevent the gross human right violations i Afghanistan being perpetrated by the occupying forces and its stooge regime alongside condemnations and pursuing international judiciary action through the criminal tribunal.

If the said organizations continue their silence regarding the war crimes of America in Afghanistan, it w further encourage these ruthless criminals to continue the killing, abduction and home demolition of th Afghans.

It is hoped that all the humanitarian organizations mentioned in this letter will heed their responsibilities due to humanitarian sympathy and hold back the hands of the murdering Americans and their internal criminals from the ethnic cleansing of Afghans.

'Afghan Taliban will regard Pakistan as brother when in power, seek ties based on mutual respect'

In an exclusive interview with Dawn.com, Taliban spokesman Zabiullah Mujahid has said that if the Taliban do end up having a say in the Afghan polity one day, they will approach Pakistan "as a brother and a neighbour", seeking "comprehensive ties

Pakistan is a Taghut and an enemy of Islam which has allied with US etc against Muslims and Islam

From all this we can say that Taliban2.0 has no kufr bit Taghut which is first pillar of Tawheed and without it Islam cannot be complete. Their fighting is not against kufr but against occupiers of their lands and their allies.

2nd Edition updates below

10. Taliban2.0's deputy leader, Sirajuddin Haqqani, to The New York Times.

In the following article in American newspaper the Taliban2.0 leader tell us what Taliban2.0 want.

He said:

"We are aware of the concerns and questions in and outside Afghanistan about the kind of government we would have after the foreign troops withdraw. My response to such concerns is that it will depend on a consensus among Afghans. We should not let our worries get in the way of a process of genuine discussion and deliberation free for the first time from foreign domination and interference."

This is basically saying that if Afghans choose Islam then we will have that and if they choose so called Islamic Democracy we will go with that and if they choose Democracy then that is what we will go with.
This is not Islamic way of doing things. Islam isn't subjected to majority vote or opinion. This is the same corruption that we have seen from so called Islamic parties like "Muslim" Brotherhood and others like those in Pakistan.
It is Shirk to subject Allah's rule to people's opinion or vote.

He then says:

"We are committed to working with other parties in a consultative manner of genuine respect to agree on a new, inclusive political system in which the voice of every Afghan is reflected and where no Afghan feels excluded."

Again, this is problematic from Islamic point of view. Those "other parties" are the political parties of Afghanistan who are apostates since they rule by Taghut(man-made laws) and they have been in war against Islamic system for all these years. In addition to that, this "inclusive political system" means it will have other polytheists like Rafidah as its part as well. We see that Tawheed has no place in this system and how it can Murtadeen and Mushrikeen be part of the system. In Islam even original Kuffar aren't granted positions in the ruling system how can then Murtadeen be allowed when Murtadeen are worst than original Kuffar and must be asked to repent or killed.

He continues and says:

"We are also aware of concerns about the potential of Afghanistan being used by disruptive groups to threaten regional and world security…. It is not in the interest of any Afghan to allow such groups to hijack our country and turn it into a battleground. We have already suffered enough from foreign interventions. We will take all measures in partnership with other Afghans to make sure the new Afghanistan is a bastion of stability and that nobody feels threatened on our soil. "

Here he is assuring the enemies of Allah that Afghanistan will not be allowed for Jihad of those who wage it against other countries like the USA. The "disruptive groups" here means the IS and AQ2.0. Taliban2.0 has already started war against the IS in order to please the enemies of Allah with whom they have signed peace agreements.
For an ordinary Afghan Muslim, the above quote is something that instills sense of nationalism in their heart. It is if he is telling those Afghans that foreigners(Mujahireen) are enemies of Afghanistan because it is due to their Jihad that Afghans are suffering and Afghanistan is being attacked. This instills sense of hatred and racism towards Mujahideen and their supporters in Afghanistan.

He then moves on and says:

"The support of the international community will be crucial to stabilizing and developing Afghanistan.
We are ready to work on the basis of mutual respect with our international partners on long-term peace-building and reconstruction. After the United States withdraws its troops, it can play a constructive role in the postwar development and reconstruction of Afghanistan.
We acknowledge the importance of maintaining friendly relations with all countries and take their concerns seriously. Afghanistan cannot afford to live in isolation. The new Afghanistan will be a responsible member of the international community."

These sound words of nationalist who are struggling for freedom and then towards "advancement" of their beloved country having nothing to do with other Muslims. They just want to mind their own business and have good relations with enemies of Allah, Islam and Muslims.

11. Taliban2.0 calls Indian occupied Kashmir as India's internal affair

Some (allegedly) pro-Pakistan accounts on social media recently spread a fake statement in the name of Taliban2.0 that they will be soon attacking India liberating Indian occupied Kashmir. Many naïve people from Indian occupied Kashmir believed it to be true and they rejoiced. Some Taliban2.0 etc supporters didn't put their feet on ground until after Taliban2.0 officials made clear that they had no such intentions.

Below is the screenshot of Taliban2.0's spokesman:

Suhail Shaheen
@suhailshaheen1

هغه اعلامیه چې د هند په هکله په ځینو مطبوعاتو کې خپره شوې، اسلامي امارت پوره اړه نلري. د اسلامي امارت پالیسي واضح ده چې د نورو هیوادونو په کورنیو چاروکې مداخله نه کوي.

Translated from Pashto by Google

The statement that has been published in some media about India is not relevant to the Islamic Emirate. The policy of the Islamic Emirate is clear that it does not interfere in the internal affairs of other countries.

1:31 PM · May 18, 2020 · Twitter Web App

Not only did they deny having released such statement against India but they also declared Kashmir as India's part although even Taghut UN recognizes this is a disputed part and we Muslims believe that Kashmir is occupied by Indian forces.
They called it India's internal affair! This is exactly what we recently heard from few nationalists like Bangladesh and UAE saying. They called it India's internal affair. India has also used this phrase often whenever anyone has raised voice against its oppression of Kashmiri Muslims. They respond with "It is our(India's) internal matter"

So we again see that Taliban2.0 are nationalists who cannot even speak for other Muslims being oppressed by the Kuffar. It is noteworthy here that they , 2019, traveled to China for their so called peace talks but they didn't raise the issue of Uighur Muslims there.
This is clearly nationalism even though some may try to call it Hikmah. For last 20 years we have seen this so called Hikmah at play. When will they speak against these oppressions?

12. Taliban2.0 wants to work with India and others for development of Afghanistan

Suhail Shaheen , the political spokesman of Taliban2.0, said
"Based on our national interest and mutual respect, we would like to have positive relations with neighbouring countries including India and welcome their contribution and cooperation in the reconstruction of future Afghanistan."

"our national interest" means we are concerned about our own Afghanistan and we are not concerned about what India does to Indian or Kashmiri Muslims.
This is how nationalists sound like. It is always about their nation or country for "national interests". Look at all countries that have betrayed and abandoned oppressed Muslims. They all have this same "national interest" in sight and for that they don't help oppressed Muslims. They continue doing business with those oppressors in the name "national interest".

13. Taliban2.0's "Jihad" purely a nationalistic struggle

Suhail Shaheen , the political spokesman of Taliban2.0, said
"The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan is a national Islamic movement of Afghanistan which has been struggling for the emancipation of the country from occupation. We don't have any agenda beyond our border. "

Again you can see "national" struggle and that "we don't have any agenda beyond our border".

They are saying that they are nationalists fight for their own country and they don't have an intentions to fight for other Muslims anywhere. They are so respecting of their artificial borders!

14. Taliban2.0 obeys ISI(Pakistan's intelligence agency)

Perhaps you know Yvonne Ridley, the British journalist who reverted to Islam after being in captivity of Taliban(of Mullah Umar).

She wrote an article on how Pakistan intelligence agency blocked release of Affia Siddiqui. Although many Taliban, AGH and AQ supporters rushed to share that article to expose Pakistan. But they didn't read the article beyond the headline.

In the article Yvonne Ridley tells us how Taliban2.0 obeyed Pakistan intelligence agency and refused to seek release of sister Affia Siddiqui. She quotes Taliban2.0:
"Hundreds of our soldiers have been injured in battles and the ISI has made arrangements to take care of them in Pakistan. Without their help and support we would be really struggling. We need them. When we stood up to America and refused to hand over Osama [Bin Laden] we had a country. We never wanted a war with the Americans, they brought the war to us. Until we regain our country we are not in the same position of strength as we were in 2001. Surely you must understand that? "

It shows that Taliban are after all not free from influence of Murtadeen agencies like ISI. This becomes especially problematic when you have to obey their orders.

15. Taliban2.0 has Rafidah Mushrikeen in leadership

Taliban2.0's spokesman in his tweet:

16. Taliban2.0 is praised by US for its fight against IS in Afghanistan

U.S. Central Command chief Gen. Frank McKenzie said:

"Over the last several months in eastern Afghanistan, we have watched the Taliban compress and crush ISIS presence on the ground in southern Nangarhar province, and they've been very effective doing that..They've been very effective ... that's some of the worst terrain in the world. There was very limited support from us."

Although he claims they provided 'limited support' to Taliban2.0 in fighting IS in Afghanistan, at least over recent months, I will not use that to say that Taliban2.0 knew US were using it to fight the IS, in this case. But as you can see worst enemies of Allah and Islam are pleased with Taliban2.0 fighting IS as Taliban2.0 has been saying that they will not allow IS attack enemies of Allah and Muslims, like the US etc, from Afghan soil. As we have shown in previous points, Taliban2.0 does plot with murtadeen and kuffar against the Islamic State in Afghanistan.

Link here: https://www.aa.com.tr/en/americas/taliban-crush-daesh-isis-with-us-limited-support/1761305

17. Taliban2.0 claims to have foiled an IS attack on US Murtad envoy.

Recently - in June, 2020 – Taliban2.0 accounts shared a video of two allegedly arrested IS members claiming that they were plotting to kill US envoy, Khalilzad.
Although there is doubt that they were members of IS or even there really were captured guys, but we can see how Taliban2.0 is trying to please the US and other enemies of Islam by showing that they are their protector. This , at least, was an attempt to show the world that they seriously are not going to allow the IS us Afghan soil against enemies of Allah.

The US said that they were investigating the video.

> "The U.S. Government takes any potential threat against U.S. personnel seriously," a State Department spokesperson told The Daily Beast. "U.S. officials are investigating the video." Afghan government authorities are doing so as well.

To be continued… In sha Allah
